SPRING REVIEW

OD Church of the Lost and Found – Myrtle Beach, SC

Zion Hill Baptist – Spartanburg, SC

Alex spoke with the youth on: “Is There Evidence for a Creator?” and “Can I Trust the Reliability of the Bible?” After each session he fielded questions from the youth. With the adults, he covered “Who is Jesus of Nazareth?”

and “Is There Evidence for the Resurrection of Jesus?” It was a powerful weekend of teaching and all who attended were encouraged to stand firm for their faith!

Church for all Nations – Colorado Springs, CO

Chapel by the Sea – Emerald Isle, NC

Alex taught on “Prophecy and End Times,” based on his book 100 BIBLE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON PROPHECY AND THE END TIMES (newly released in 2025). Attendees included a girl who asked about reaching a skeptic, a group of guys from UNC Wilmington, and a married couple that drove from Atlanta.

Southeast Guilford High School

Alex discussed “Anxiety” with over 100 students from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at his former school, Southeast Guilford High. Kids today are more anxious than ever. The leaders didn’t think that the students would speak in the large group setting. Turns out, when asked about their fears, they carried the conversation. They shared what they were afraid of, everything from the dark or their parents’ divorce. Alex shared how God helps us overcome our fears.

The Tabernacle – Danville, VA

After Alex spoke, a wife came to her husband and apologized for being embittered toward him. Forgiveness flowed and they were able to refocus on their path forward together. Praise be to God!

Other highlights – Alex joined Bunni Pounds, President of Christians Engaged (shown at right), and other national leaders at “America Reads the Bible”. He also participated in “Israel Advocacy Day” – both events were in D.C.

25+ YEARS IN, AND OUR ‘UNNECESSARY’ MINISTRY IS NOW FRONT-PAGE RELEVANT

By Alex McFarland

“Alex, people never need that C.S. Lewis, apologetics stuff unless they’re on the campus of Yale University. Most people will never meet a Muslim or atheist unless they were on the foreign mission field.”

Those were the discouraging words said to me by a major denominational leader in the late 1990’s as I began to try and launch this ministry of apologetics and evangelism. My wife and I had been very successful in local church youth ministry for 10 years at that point, and with Angie’s support, I had completed seminary and graduate school degrees. Our youth worldview conferences had been covered on the front page of the Greensboro News & Record— twice. God was with us, our fledgling Board was growing, and young souls were coming to faith in Christ.

But, still . . . two decades ago, the idea that the U.S.A. would turn to socialism, Sharia law, or atheistic secularism— people told me that I was, “an alarmist.” Building a staff and raising any financial support was extremely difficult.

Responding to the Trends We Saw Coming

“Gay marriage will never happen in the US,” pastors told me. “America is a Christian nation!” One minister said (as he was explaining to me why he rescinded the invitation I had been given to preach), “Alex, use your speaking gifts to lift people up! The sky isn’t falling! And the average church member doesn’t want to become a theologian.”

Selling the American church on the idea that they needed to be prepared to ‘defend the faith’ (see 1 Peter 3:15) was not easy. Not at all.

But in late 2003, I received a phone call from James Dobson, PhD, leader of Focus On the Family. “Are you that youth apologetics guy?” he asked. Dr. Dobson had read a tiny piece of news coverage we’d gotten in Christianity Today. By early 2004, and with budget from Focus On the Family, I was speaking throughout the Western states— California, Oregon, and Washington state, leasing venues and assembling conferences with colleagues like Lee Strobel, Ravi Zacharias, Josh McDowell, Erwin Lutzer, and more.

Over the last 25 years, God has allowed us to lead more than 50 city-wide, multi-church conferences, featuring speakers like Chuck Colson, Joni Earekson Tada, Dinesh D’Souza, Eric Metaxas, Ben Carson, Ken Ham, and Dr. Dobson himself.

Today (and we give God the glory from all He has accomplished), this ministry has produced 21 original books through publishers such as Tyndale and Thomas Nelson. It has been my honor to explicitly share the Gospel in hundreds of media interviews, with FOX, CNN, the New York Times, CBS evening news, The Wall Street Journal, Al Jazeera World Service, C-Span, and countless others.

Our Board has grown, our staff has grown, and— best of all— the numbers of people coming to faith in Christ continues to grow! This is why we do what we do— to contribute to Christ’s Great Commission, to equip the church, and with God’s help, to ‘push back the darkness.’

Please Invest in a Ministry ‘Whose Time has Come’

Years ago God gave me a calling, and I humbly believe, the Lord gave me discernment. The cultural and spiritual trends I was preaching about decades ago have come to our doorstep and into the halls of government. I fear that I understated the looming threats.

Today, we are on radio and television 7 days per week. We are bringing our Revive US rallies to cities across America. We continue to host six summer youth camps annually.

When we hosted Charlie Kirk last year (days before his tragic assassination), attendees came from 17 states. Videos of he and I onstage were viewed on social media more than 30 million times. The invitations for our Gospel ministry have, as they say, ‘gone vertical.’

But we need your help to respond to those coming to us for spiritual help and guidance. Please become a Partner with us and invest in the saving of America!

I thank you for your prayers, financial support, and for the trust you have placed in us.

Your brother in the Gospel,

Alex McFarland

Summer is here, and we’re thrilled to once again partner with Reasons for Hope for their Equip Camps! This year, Alex will be teaching at six Equip Camps, equipping middle and high school students to think clearly, stand confidently, and boldly defend the Christian faith. Through engaging teaching and practical apologetics, students will be strengthened in what they believe—and why they believe it. Please pray for the students that will attend in 2026.
